Professional Summary

Extensive experience across Europe and the Americas developing brand identity and consumer packaging for leading global companies. During my career, I have led several high-visibility projects for top multinational enterprises such as Procter & Gamble, Johnson & Johnson, Pernod Ricard, Nespresso, and The Coca-Cola Company. I have eclectic experience leading teams and fostering a creative atmosphere across diverse environments.

Other achievements include: Hosted the Landor 2012 International Forum of Design; selected as an attendee for the Festival of Creativity in Cannes; honored as invited speaker at conferences and awarded at the a! Diseño Awards Ceremony in 2016 and 2017.

Currently working as an independent UX/UI designer, expanding my technical knowledge in the digital world with a certificate in Full-Stack Web Development at UW.

Experience

Independent Brand Designer and Consultant for The Legacy®. Seattle WA | August 2019 - Present

My role as an independent brand consultant is to expand the company's eminence and business upon relocating to Seattle. My main contributions are:

- Curating design cases for The Legacy®'s portfolio of work —online and offline
- Reviewing presentations for strategic projects and key business leads
- Leading brand strategies to elevate The Legacy®'s market prestige
- Leading promotional initiatives for print and digital media
- Presenting brand design trends to key clients

Partner, Creative Director at The Legacy®. Mexico City, Mexico | October 2013 - July 2019

I generated a positive impact inside the company's culture and its business growth; ensured excellency in design execution while managing and mentoring a creative team of fifteen. I successfully developed projects for The Coca-Cola Company, Johnson and Johnson, Dannon, and several new business leads. My contributions also included:

- Signing off on projects for presentations and keeping deadlines
- Promoting the values of the agency internally and externally
- Providing insight on design trends and branding culture
- Featuring brand strategy in every project, small or big
- Maintaining an excellent relationship with clients

Creative Director at Landor Associates. Mexico City, Mexico | August 2012 - August 2013

I was the leader of the packaging design and the graphic production teams for Latin American markets. Efficiently managed competing workstreams, worked under tight deadlines, and collaborated cross-functionally with the client service and the strategic planning departments. Also successfully provided:

- Creative solutions for Procter & Gamble, PepsiCo, Starbucks, Danone and Diageo
- Outstanding work engaging new business prospects and talent for the company
- Confidently presented Landor's work to senior clients and top decision makers

Independent Design Director. Paris, France | September 2011 - August 2012

An entrepreneurial year developing projects for clients in Mexico, France and the UAE:

- For Futurebrand of Paris, I developed premium projects for Martell, Rémy Martin, and Nespresso
- I consulted with The Legacy® for projects in connection with Mondelèz and Walmart of Mexico
- From my home studio I worked with CB'a Design of Dubai, Lipton Tea and Harvest Foods

Design Director at CB'a Design. Paris, France | August 2008 - September 2011

Based at the headquarters in Paris, France and also collaborated at the office in Milan, Italy. I created and implemented strategic direction in packaging projects for several brands and markets, such as:

- Joseph Perrier, Dulux Valentine (Akzo Nobel), Schweppes, and Imperial Tobacco in France
- Lipton Tea and Lipton Ice Tea in Europe, Middle East and the Americas
- Ferrero and Nestlé in Italy, Elbisco in Greece, and Lu in Finland

Sr. Designer at Landor Associates. Paris, France | October 2005 - July 2008

Relocated to Paris as a member of the multicultural creative team, taking on additional responsibilities leading design teams, working with clients in three languages on a daily basis:

- Mövenpick of Switzerland, Philip Morris International (now Altria Group) and Pernod Ricard
- My work for Europe was launched in France, Spain, Italy, Belgium, Croatia and Switzerland
- Also in Turkey, Tunisia, Algeria, Russia, China, UAE, Mexico and Latin American countries

Designer / Sr. Designer at Landor Associates. Mexico City, Mexico | February 2001 - September 2005

I began my professional career working as a packaging designer for this first-tier branding company.

My achievements included:

- Successful projects for Modelo Brewery, Frito-Lay, Danone, and Philip Morris (now Altria Group)
- An early promotion to manage my own team of three designers, dedicated to high-profile clients
- Designer ambassador traveling to collaborate with the offices in New York City, London, and Paris
- First graphic designer in the Mexico City office to win monumental Landor Award in 2003
